VI. Judicial work of the Tribunal

A. *Dispute concerning delimitation of the maritime boundary between Bangladesh and Myanmar in the Bay of Bengal (Bangladesh/Myanmar)

41. On 14 December 2009, proceedings were instituted before the Tribunal in relation to the delimitation of the maritime boundary in the Bay of Bengal between Bangladesh and Myanmar (case No. 16 on the list of cases). The dispute concerned the delimitation of the maritime boundary between Bangladesh and Myanmar in the Bay of Bengal with respect to the territorial sea, the exclusive economic zone and the continental shelf.

42. On 28 January 2010, the President adopted an order fixing the following time limits for the filing of the pleadings in the case: 1 July 2010 for the memorial of Bangladesh, and 1 December 2010 for the counter-memorial of Myanmar. The memorial and the counter-memorial were duly filed within the time limits so prescribed.

43. By a further order dated 17 March 2010, the Tribunal authorized the submission of a reply by Bangladesh and a rejoinder by Myanmar and fixed 15 March 2011 and 1 July 2011, respectively, for the filing of those pleadings. The reply and the rejoinder were duly filed within the time limits so prescribed.

44. Both Bangladesh and Myanmar chose judges ad hoc pursuant to article 17 of the Statute of the Tribunal and article 19 of the Rules of the Tribunal. Thomas Mensah was chosen as judge ad hoc by Bangladesh and Bernard Oxman was chosen as judge ad hoc by Myanmar.

45. On 19 August 2011, the President, after ascertaining the views of the parties, fixed 8 September 2011 as the date for the opening of the hearing.

46. Prior to the opening of the hearing, the Tribunal held initial deliberations on 5, 6 and 7 September 2011.

47. The parties presented their oral statements at 15 public sittings, held from 8 to 24 September 2011. In accordance with article 75, paragraph 2, of the Rules, the parties presented the following final submissions:

On behalf of Bangladesh, at the hearing on 22 September 2011:

[O]n the basis of the facts and arguments set out in our Reply and during these oral proceedings, Bangladesh requests the Tribunal to adjudge and declare that:

(1) The maritime boundary between Bangladesh and Myanmar in the territorial sea shall be that line first agreed between them in 1974 and reaffirmed in 2008. The coordinates for each of the seven points comprising the delimitation are those set forth in our written Submissions in the Memorial and Reply;

(2) From Point 7, the maritime boundary between Bangladesh and Myanmar follows a line with a geodesic azimuth of  $215^{\circ}$  to the point located at the coordinates set forth in paragraph 2 of the Submissions as set out in the Reply; and

(3) From that point, the maritime boundary between Bangladesh and Myanmar follows the contours of the 200-M limit drawn from Myanmar's normal baselines to the point located at the coordinates set forth in paragraph 3 of the Submissions as set out in the Reply.

On behalf of Myanmar, at the hearing on 24 September 2011:

Having regard to the facts and law set out in the Counter-Memorial and the Rejoinder, and at the oral hearing, the Republic of the Union of Myanmar requests the Tribunal to adjudge and declare that:

1. The single maritime boundary between Myanmar and Bangladesh runs from point A to point G, as set out in the Rejoinder. [...]

2. From point G, the boundary line continues along the equidistance line in a south-west direction following a geodetic azimuth of  $231^{\circ} 37' 50.9''$  until it reaches the area where the rights of a third State may be affected.

48. The Tribunal delivered the judgment on 14 March 2012. The decision will be reported in the annual report of the Tribunal for 2012.

B. *Responsibilities and obligations of States sponsoring persons and entities with respect to activities in the Area (Request for Advisory Opinion submitted to the Seabed Disputes Chamber)

49. On 6 May 2010, the Council of the International Seabed Authority adopted decision ISBA/16/C/13, in which, in accordance with article 191 of the Convention, it requested the Seabed Disputes Chamber of the Tribunal to render an advisory opinion on the following questions:

1. What are the legal responsibilities and obligations of States parties to the Convention with respect to the sponsorship of activities in the Area in accordance with the Convention, in particular part XI, and the 1994 Agreement relating to the Implementation of Part XI of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea of 10 December 1982?

2. What is the extent of liability of a State party for any failure to comply with the provisions of the Convention, in particular part XI, and the 1994 Agreement, by an entity whom it has sponsored under article 153, paragraph 2 (b), of the Convention?
3. What are the necessary and appropriate measures that a sponsoring State must take in order to fulfil its responsibility under the Convention, in particular article 139 and annex III, and the 1994 Agreement?

50. The request was received by the Seabed Disputes Chamber on 14 May 2010 and entered in the list of cases of the Tribunal as case No. 17.

51. On 18 May 2010, the President of the Seabed Disputes Chamber adopted an order fixing 9 August 2010 as the time limit for the presentation of written statements, and 14 September 2010 as the date for the opening of the oral proceedings. The time limit for the submission of written statements was extended to 19 August 2010, by a further order of the President of the Chamber dated 28 July 2010.

52. Within this time limit, 12 States parties to the Convention (Australia, Chile, China, Germany, the Republic of Korea, Mexico, Nauru, the Netherlands, the Philippines, Romania, the Russian Federation and the United Kingdom) filed written statements. Within the same time limit, written statements were also submitted by the International Seabed Authority, the Interoceanmetal Joint Organization and the International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources. One further organization (the United Nations Environment Programme) filed a statement after the time limit. In addition, a joint statement by two international non-governmental organizations (the Stichting Greenpeace Council (Greenpeace International) and the World Wide Fund for Nature) was submitted to the Chamber, together with a petition to intervene in the proceedings as amicus curiae. Pursuant to a decision of the Chamber, the joint statement was not considered as part of the documentation in the case. All the statements were posted on the website of the Tribunal.

53. Prior to the opening of the hearing, the Chamber met for initial deliberations on 10, 13 and 14 September 2010.

54. During the hearing held on 14, 15 and 16 September 2010, nine States parties (Argentina, Chile, Fiji, Germany, Mexico, Nauru, the Netherlands, the Russian Federation and the United Kingdom), the International Seabed Authority, the Intergovernmental Oceanographic Commission of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and the International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources presented oral statements to the Seabed Disputes Chamber.

55. The Seabed Disputes Chamber delivered its advisory opinion on 1 February 2011. The Chamber found that it had jurisdiction to entertain the request submitted to it by the Council of the International Seabed Authority and decided to respond to that request, as follows:

(a) In replying to question 1 (see para. 49 above), the Chamber explained that States sponsoring activities in the Area have two kinds of obligations. The first is “the obligation to ensure compliance by sponsored contractors with the terms of the contract and the obligations set out in the Convention and related instruments”. This is an obligation of “due diligence”, requiring the sponsoring State “to make best possible efforts to secure compliance by the sponsored contractors” and “to take measures within its legal system” which “must consist of laws and regulations and administrative measures”. The second kind concerns “direct obligations with which sponsoring States must comply independently of their obligation to ensure a certain conduct on the part of the sponsored contractors”. According to the Chamber, the most important direct obligations are the obligation to assist the Authority set out in article 153, paragraph 4, of the Convention, the obligation to apply a precautionary approach as reflected in principle 15 of the Rio Declaration, the obligation to apply the “best environmental practices”, the obligations to adopt measures to ensure the provision of guarantees in the event of an emergency order by the Authority for the protection of the marine environment, and the obligation to provide recourse for compensation;

(b) In response to question 2 (see para. 49 above), the Chamber stated that the liability of the sponsoring State arises from its failure to fulfil its obligations and that failure of the sponsored contractor to comply with its obligations does not in itself give rise to liability on the part of the sponsoring State. The Chamber observed that the conditions for the liability of the sponsoring State to arise are failure to carry out its responsibilities, and occurrence of damage. It explained that “the liability of the sponsoring State for failure to comply with its due diligence obligations requires that a causal link be established between such failure and damage”. Moreover, the sponsoring State is absolved from liability if it has taken “all necessary and appropriate measures to secure effective compliance” by the sponsored contractor with its obligations. This exemption from liability does not apply to the failure to carry out its direct obligations;

(c) Finally, the Chamber answered question 3 (see para. 49 above) by stating that the sponsoring State is required, under the Convention, to adopt, within its legal system, laws and regulations and to take administrative measures. These laws and regulations and administrative measures have two distinct functions: to ensure compliance by the contractor with its obligations and to exempt the sponsoring State from liability. The Chamber observed that “the scope and extent of these laws and regulations and administrative measures depends on the legal system of the sponsoring State”. Such laws and regulations and administrative measures “may include the establishment of enforcement mechanisms for active supervision of the activities of the sponsored contractor and for coordination between the activities of the sponsoring State and those of the Authority”. They “should be in force at all times that a contract with the Authority is in force” and “should also cover the obligations of the contractor after the completion of the exploration phase”. The Chamber also concluded that “the sponsoring State cannot be considered as complying with its obligations only by entering into a contractual arrangement with the contractor”.

C. *The M/V “Louisa” Case (Saint Vincent and the Grenadines v. Kingdom of Spain)

56. On 24 November 2010, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines instituted proceedings before the Tribunal against Spain in a dispute concerning the arrest of the M/V Louisa (case No. 18 on the list of cases). The application instituting proceedings included a request for the prescription of provisional measures under article 290, paragraph 1, of the Convention. The Tribunal delivered its order on this request on 23 December 2010.

57. On 11 January 2011, the President held consultations with the representatives of the parties to ascertain their views with regard to questions of procedure concerning the merits in the case.

58. On 12 January 2011, the President issued an order fixing 11 May 2011 as the time limit for the filing of the memorial by Saint Vincent and the Grenadines and 11 October 2011 as the time limit for the filing of the counter-memorial by Spain. By a further order dated 28 April 2011, the time limits for the submission of these pleadings were extended to 10 June and 10 November 2011, respectively. The memorial of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines was duly filed within the extended time limit.

59. By an order dated 30 September 2011, the Tribunal authorized the submission of a reply by Saint Vincent and the Grenadines and a rejoinder by Spain and fixed 11 December 2011 and 11 February 2012, respectively, for the filing of those pleadings.
