The fifteenth Meeting of States Parties approved, as an interim measure, the proposal presented by the Tribunal that the annual remuneration of the members of the Tribunal be increased to the level of the emoluments of the members of the International Court of Justice, i.e. US$ 170,080, effective 1 January 2005; the pensions in payment were adjusted accordingly. The Meeting also authorized the Registrar, in the event of the Tribunal being unable to meet expenditures for 2005-2006 from approved appropriations made in the budget line "Special allowances of judges", to incur expenditure to the extent that the shortfall in appropriation results from an increase in daily subsistence allowance as fixed by the United Nations (see SPLOS/135, para. 49, SPLOS/132).

68. The Meeting authorized the Tribunal to finance overexpenditures referred to in the paragraph above by transfers between appropriation sections as far as possible and by using part of the savings of US$ 500,000 from the financial period 2002, up to an amount of €115,500. In addition, the Registrar was requested to report on all relevant implications concerning any action taken pursuant to their decision (see SPLOS/135, para. 49, SPLOS/132).

3. Effects of fluctuations in exchange rate on the remuneration of the members of the Tribunal

69. Following a proposal submitted by the Tribunal, the fifteenth Meeting of States Parties decided to apply to the annual allowance and the special allowance of the members of the Tribunal, effective 1 July 2005, the same floor/ceiling mechanism as is applicable to the emoluments of the judges of the International Court of Justice. The Meeting authorized the Tribunal to finance overexpenditures due to the application of the floor/ceiling mechanism by using part of the savings of the financial period 2002 up to an amount of €263,000 and those from the financial period 2004 up to an amount of €150,000. Furthermore, the Meeting approved a supplementary budget of €351,899 for the financial period 2005-2006 and requested

Pursuant to financial regulation 10.1 (a), the Registrar should establish detailed financial rules and procedures in order to ensure effective financial administration and the exercise of economy. In accordance with this provision, the Tribunal, at its seventeenth session, approved the Financial Rules, which had been prepared by the Registrar and reviewed by the Committee on Budget and Finance. The Financial Rules were submitted to the fourteenth Meeting of States Parties for its consideration. The Meeting took note of the Financial Rules of the Tribunal, which, according to rule 114.1, became effective on 1 January 2005 (see SPLOS/120).

D. Reports of the auditor for 2003 and 2004

76. In accordance with the Financial Regulations of the United Nations, which were applicable mutatis mutandis to the Tribunal, arrangements were made for the accounts of the Tribunal to be audited by an internationally recognized auditing firm.

77. The audit report for 2003 was submitted by the Tribunal to the fifteenth Meeting of States Parties. The Meeting considered and took note with appreciation of the report (see SPLOS/135, para. 30).

78. The audit report for the financial year 2004 was presented by the Registrar at the twentieth session of the Tribunal. The auditor, having reviewed the transactions and operations over that period, was satisfied that the annual financial statements gave a true and fair view of the net assets, financial position and results of operations of the Tribunal in accordance with principles of proper accounting and with the Financial Regulations of the United Nations, which were applied mutatis mutandis. The Tribunal took note of the audit report for 2004 and requested that the report be submitted to the sixteenth Meeting of States Parties.

In addition, during the nineteenth session, the Committee adopted a policy regarding German classes according to which new staff members would be entitled to the reimbursement of 50 per cent of the costs for classes with a limit of €900 per year provided that the classes take place outside working hours. As to other staff members, special leave with full pay should be granted for a maximum of 12 days over a period of two years.

D. Staff Pension Committee

88. During the nineteenth and twentieth sessions, the Committee on Staff and Administration considered the need to establish a staff pension committee in the Registry on the basis of proposals presented by the Registry. The Tribunal recommended that a document be prepared and submitted to the Meeting of States Parties containing proposals for nominating a member and alternate member of the committee.
