NEW ARBITRATOR APPOINTED IN THE ARBITRAL PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED BY UKRAINE AGAINST THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION

PCA CASE NO. 2019-28, DISPUTE CONCERNING THE DETENTION OF UKRAINIAN NAVAL VESSELS AND SERVICEMEN
(UKRAINE V. THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION)

On 24 July 2026, the President of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea, Judge Tomas Heidar, appointed Mr Alberto Székely y Sánchez (Mexico) as arbitrator in the arbitral proceedings instituted by Ukraine against the Russian Federation under Annex VII to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (PCA Case No. 2019-28, Dispute Concerning the Detention of Ukrainian Naval Vessels and Servicemen (Ukraine v. the Russian Federation))).

By letter dated 3 July 2026, the Agent of Ukraine, Mr Anton Korynevych, informed President Heidar of the withdrawal of an arbitrator from the arbitral tribunal. The letter stated that “[o]n 1 June 2026, the Parties received notice of Professor Nguyen Hong Thao’s withdrawal, citing the complexity and demands of the case as well as personal reasons.” The letter also stated that following the withdrawal of Professor Nguyen Hong Thao from the arbitral tribunal, “the Russian Federation has failed to appoint a replacement arbitrator pursuant to Article 3(c) of Annex VII to the Convention.” In the letter, Ukraine requested President Heidar to “appoint an arbitrator within 30 days of receipt of this request”, pursuant to article 3, subparagraphs (c), (e) and (f) of Annex VII to the Convention.

Under article 3, subparagraph (f), of Annex VII to the Convention, any vacancy in the arbitral tribunal must be filled “in the manner prescribed for the initial appointment.” The President was therefore required to make the appointment to fill the vacant seat within a period of 30 days of receipt of the request and in consultation with the Parties, as prescribed under article 3, subparagraph (e), of Annex VII to the Convention. Further to consultations by correspondence with the Parties on the matter, Mr Alberto Székely y Sánchez was appointed to serve as a member of the arbitral tribunal.

The composition of the five-member Annex VII arbitral tribunal is now as follows: Gudmundur Eiriksson, president (Iceland), Christopher Greenwood (United Kingdom), James Kateka (United Republic of Tanzania), Kathy-Ann Brown (Jamaica) and Alberto Székely y Sánchez (Mexico).
