

INTERNATIONAL TRIBUNAL FOR THE LAW OF THE SEA
TRIBUNAL INTERNATIONAL DU DROIT DE LA MER

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT FOR THE POST OF DEPUTY REGISTRAR OF THE INTERNATIONAL TRIBUNAL FOR THE LAW OF THE SEA

Election: The Deputy Registrar is elected by the Tribunal from among candidates nominated by its judges for a term of five years. He/she may be re-elected.

Functions: The duties of the Deputy Registrar are specified in the Rules of the Tribunal, especially in article 37 thereof.

Qualifications and experience:

- Excellent knowledge of the jurisprudence and procedure of the Tribunal.
- Knowledge of the United Nations system, diplomacy or the work of international organizations.
- A minimum of 15 years of professional experience in the practice of public international law, law of the sea or international dispute resolution.
- Progressively responsible managerial experience including in administrative work, preferably in a judicial institution or an international organization, and proven supervisory abilities in a multilingual and multicultural environment.

Education: Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) in law, with a specialization in public international law, preferably in law of the sea or settlement of disputes.

Languages: English and French are the two official languages of the Tribunal. An excellent command of both languages is required. Knowledge of the German language would be an additional asset.

Remuneration: The salary is applicable at the level of D-2 under the United Nations common system, tax-free with United Nations benefits and allowances.

Applications: Applicants should send their expression of interest by e-mail to the Registrar of the Tribunal, indicating the vacancy announcement number.

Applicants are requested to complete a Personal History Form (P.11 form), which can be found on the Tribunal's website at www.itlos.org and to write a cover letter. Both documents should be saved in PDF format and sent to the following e-mail address: personnel@itlos.org

Deadline for applications: 13 February 2025.

Only applicants nominated by Judges will be contacted.
